PowerPoint Assignment

Drawing on our class viewing of the documentary Star Wars: Empire of Dreams, create a focused and interesting PowerPoint presentation in which you outline four (4) key personal or professional traits a young film-maker must possess in order to see his/ her films be produced. You must, of course, indicate how and when George Lucas utilized such traits in the development and production of his Star Wars trilogy. Be certain to include a title slide indicating your name and the title of the presentation. Each slide should clearly state the trait/ quality backed up by examples from the documentary. Use the PowerPoint checklist below as you complete this assignment.

POWERPOINT Checklist

- Have you included an introduction slide?
- Do you outline FOUR distinct traits/ qualities?
- Have you provided direct examples from the documentary?
- Have you avoided language that is overly general or vague? As well as repeating words often.
- Does the presentation have a clear organizing principle? In other words, have you chosen to present your supporting details and examples in the best order possible?
- Do you end the PowerPoint with a concluding slide that wraps up the main idea of the presentation?
- Why not include images to really enhance your presentation?
